argument

today, 1950, we find ourselves in a peculiar situation. we are one world—one people—and yet we are divided, divided so strongly against one another that in comparison the great schism appears a tiny crack. we are one world—one people —and yet we are divided so strongly against one another in our common struggle to obtain the fruits of life that if we continue in such a fashion, this division will be our ultimate destruction. so we come to ask ourselves: why do we wander in this perpetual storm lost . . . without our bearings? that question lies unanswered. though we cannot set our bearings from predicting the future, we can from judging the past, seeing what trends . . . patterns of living we have experienced. in this way perhaps we can grasp some scope of the future. and it is proper that this is done today, 1950, when our century has reached its mid-point, when our school has changed administrations, and when our future depends so much upon our actions today. the case is simple to state: we should look back into the past to see what has been done in order to gain some clearer perspective of the future. in fulfilling this objective, we present this yearbook for your consideration.

it has been to me a real privilege during these past years to have a part in the work and growth of hammond high school. in the years that are ahead hammond high will move forward and help to keep this part of indiana a world center of education and industry.

a tribute to mr. spohn

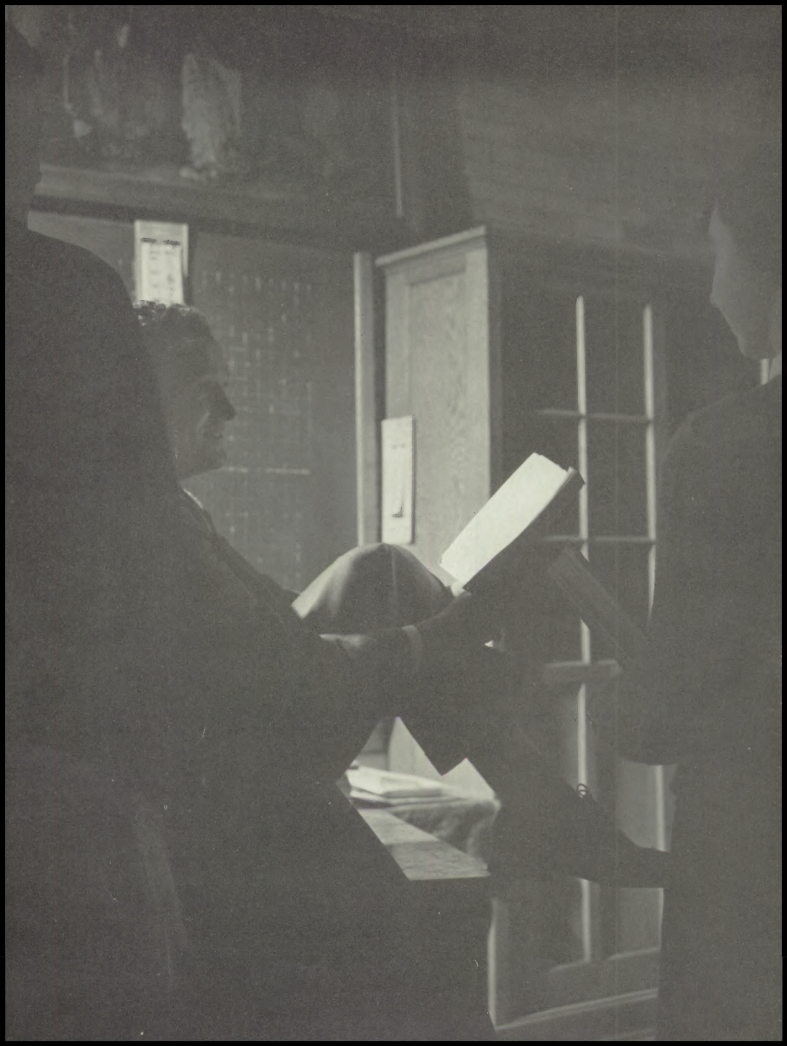

1905 assumed his first teaching position as english teacher in the hammond school system

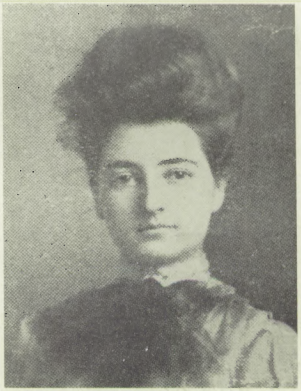

1911 moved to minneapolis where he taught in one of the city's high schools

1919 returned to hammond where he became principal of the old industrial high school which is now hammond high school

1950 retired after thirty-one years of untiring service to the entire community faculty

'way back then, around 1900, the faculty consisted all of two or three persons . . . with the principal included. today, 1950, it numbers 'way past sixty. though the numbers have changed in those many years, the characteristics and relationships so peculiar to the faculty in its experiences with its pupils have not. because these fine characteristics and warm relationships have been familiar to us so long . . . until they have actually become traditions in our school system, our school days would hardly be recognizable without them. grade books, semester exams, red pencil markings, admits, special reports, attendance slips, and the daily assignments have become such common parts of school life now, as they were then, that there is a clear indication that this is one part of our school life that has not been changed in the transition.

the turn of the mid-century finds hammond high school long steeped in the traditions of high scholarship, fine music and art, good sportsmanship, and outstanding athletic and forensic teams.

in the years to come, these fine traditions will continue along with trends emphasizing to youth an appreciative understanding of the freedoms of living in a democracy along with its inherent responsibilities. we want to give youth a deeper understanding of the economic problems in our highly technological society, and afford them an opportunity to participate in our community and civic events. the american way of life is to be forever stressed, along with family and religious life.

nothing has changed more in the past fifty years than the classes. then, all they were interested in were readin', 'ritin', 'rithmetic, and gettin' out. now, what is it? observation, interpretation, integration, and getin' out! around 1900 we had a couple or three dozen students . . . six in the senior class and today, 1950, there are almost four hundred. again, with the passing of years, there has been a growth in the students' ideas. new interests, different opinions, and original approaches are all encouraged under today's system. individuality strengthened by strong traditions has developed hammond high school students into the best there are. more than just time has passed since 1900. progress toward a liberal education has been made.

SENIORS

Heading class activities this year was Robert Kutak. Helping him were Majette Erickson, vice-president; Darlene Sherrill, secretary; and Peggy Pinkstaff, treasurer.

When the class had trouble with details in their numerous activities, the first person to hear of them was Mrs. Byers. Mr. Seddelmeyer helped her in the task of being class sponsor.

Tom Lunsford was elected to lead the student government. Mel Ein served as vice-president; Audrey Perry, as recorder. The association could not function without an efficient cabinet. Executing their duties well were John Harrigan, secretary of social activities; Tom Skrentny, secretary of student discipline; Emily McGuire, secretary of public safety; Mary Grant, secretary of Red Cross; and Alice Boyd, secretary of publications.

Tom Skrentny and Steve Markovich were the Seniors who sent out court notices, while Richard Sandler, Ella Mae Cuprak, and Polly Parke served in the senate. House representatives were Allegree, Barcus, Conrad, Davis, Guy, Hanes, Laskowski, Matthews, McClendon, Nelson, and Wittmer.

Helping inaugurate the new social room with its many facilities were G. Adams, M. Armstrong, Jean Coughlin, Joan Coughlin, Gevirtz, Harrigan, Jens, Korba, Powers, Trappe, and Wright.

Burnett, Bush, Cole, Gevirtz, Groff, Kutak, Perdew, P. Smith, Stickler, and Tinkham proved their literary talents by compiling this year's Dunes. Parallel to the Dunes is the Herald with seniors Bill Graham, Evelyn Pierce, Gloria Simpson, Dave Koval, Peggy Pinkstaff, Charlotte Simmons, and Joan Mirazalli on the staff.

Gevirtz, Perry, and P. Smith worked at all the games to transfer their pep and zip to the crowd.

Hammond can be very proud of the excellent record set by Grant, Kutak, Laskowski, Peterson, Skrentny, Thompson, and Wagner as they participated in speech meets throughout the state.

The pigskin was pushed around by Alley, Benson, Brumley, T. Etter, Ferree, Funston, Hoffman, D. Jones, Kokinda, Lietzan, Mahns, Richter, Schaeffer, Vicari, Yarovsky, and Blankenburg, manager.

Winter wouldn't be complete without round ball. Our team wouldn't have been complete without J. Adams, Dubs, Granack, Richter, Powers, Scherer, and Tinkham.

Bakalar, DePaoli, T. Etter, and Fox helped the swimming team win manner honors.

As Rookies warmed up for the Cubs, Brooks, Davis, Hughes, Kokinda, and Scherer warmed up for the H. H. S. baseball team.

Ben Hogan has to be careful when G. Brown, Granack, J. Homolla, Messman, and Tsatsos take to the greens to wield their golf clubs.

J. Adams, Berta, Black, Covault, Davis, Fitzgerald, Glass, Krejci, Menning, Richards, Solan, Tinkham, Wagner, and Ziehl, proved their ability to run cross country while those participating in track were John Adams, Keith Benson, Bob Berta, Fred Bleck, Mel Ein, Jerry Fitzgerald, Wilbur Hofman, Emil Krejci, Bob McDonald, Dick Mehler, Edgar Menning, John Richards, Dick Solan, Dick Tinkham, Dom Vicari, Clark Wagner, Don Ziehl. Beckman was manager.

Although many boys participated in sports, the girls were not to be outdone. Burnett, Campbell, Carroll, Flitar, Geib, Gevirtz, Gidney, Gifford, Haag, Herakovich, Kalbac, Orr, Starks, Stephan, Thompson, Wilson, Wittmer, and Ziller took part in the various intra-mural sports offered for girls.

Running the machines for visual aids were Blankenburg, Gifford, Hancock, Krontz, Miofsky, Stahley, and Tobin.

If you felt weak or had a temperature, assistant nurses, Baganz, N. Campbell, Frank, Marsh, Warner, and Voris would have been glad to give you that cherished admit home.

The class boasts many connected with the vocal department. In the choral club were Alexander, Artim, Bubonovich, Cave, DeBarge, Gidney, Krizman, and Wenner. Erickson and Sarantos were in the girls' chorus. Adams, Abney, Armstrong, Briesacker, Cleary, Cole, Conrad, Darrah, Hanes, Hettrick, Houseworth, Kalbac, Lunsford, Lynch, Matthews, Moore, Miofsky, Nagel, A. Perry, Petty, Reese, Reinert, Stickler, Tanner, and E. Voris participated in the choir.

Musicians in the senior band were Barry, Bishop, Brunfield, Davis, Echt, Laskowski, McCartney, Parker, Reed, Snyder, and Vezcan.

Miller, Walker and Shimkus played in the orchestra.

Perhaps Cullen, Mehler, Martin, Sandler, Sherrill or Youngjohn will some day be winning oscars for their acting ability. They certainly were great in the fall play. Those in the senior play were Pat Smith, Betty Kalbac, Tom Lunsford, Ella Mae Cuprak, Charles Echt, Carolyn Starks, Fred De Paoli, Eddie Gabovitch, Bob Bartos, and Earl Hilton.

The senior class can be very proud of its members. But as classes go there are always some who are outstanding. Majette Erickson and Tom Lunsford won the D.A.R. awards. Ron Wagonblast certainly deserved the Bausch and science award which is now his.

Valedictorian of the class was Majette Erickson. Clark Wagner was not far behind and became salutatorian.

The National Honor Society included the following seniors: Richard Abney, Arnold Abrahamson, John Adams, Alice Artim, Jean Barnett, Shirley Barnett, Rita Bily, Robert Bock, Alice Boyd, David Brooks, Lucille Brumfield, Marilyn Burnett, Doris Bush, Doris Carroll, Robert Church, Lois Cleary, Ella Mae Cuprak, Donald Davidson, Katherine Duro, Lillian Dzuik, Charles Echt, Melvin Ein, Maejette Erickson, Marianne Flitar, Joan Foster, Herbert Franson, Carolyn Fredericks, Ed Gabovitch, Carol Geib, Joyce Gevirtz, Jean Gragido, William Graham, Mary K. Grant, Nelda Gruener, Joan Guy, John Hancock, Earl Helton, Carole Herhold, Thelma Hestermann, Rosemarie Houseworth, Bonita Jens, Kenneth Johnson, Donald Jones, Emil Krejci, Robert Kutak, Tom Lunsford, Steve Markovich, James Martin, Emily McGuire, Edgar Menning, Rita Miller, Norman Mills, William Miofsky, Betty Nelson, Hannah Orr, John Parker, William Perdew, Audrey Perry, Jack Peterson, Leonard Peterson, Peggy Pinkstaff, Audrey Rahn, Patricia Reinert, Mary D. SENIOR GRADUATION 1949

Hey ma, here I am!

1949 Graduation.

No, ma, the nineteenth row!

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Top: Benson, Peckenpaugh, Abrahamson.

Seated: Cox.

Standing: Conrad, Woelfel, Yedinak.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Top: Howard, Copple, Kroush.

Bottom: Gibson.

CLASS SPONSORS

Miss Thompson, Mr. Brock, Mr. Hightower.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior Class officers were as follows: Howard Peckenpaugh, president; Shirley Benson, vice-president; Marjorie Hoffman, secretary; and Bob Abrahamson, treasurer. Mr. Hightower enlightened the Junior students as class counselor and Miss Thompson and Mr. Hightower were the cooperative class sponsors.

Douglas Stuart played an important part for the student body as Junior Judge. Jean Anderson, Marlene Deutsch, and Walter Hammond were interested in student government and served as members of the Senate.

The House of Representatives was filled with such active participants as Alexander, Barna, Bock, Burbach, Cain, Ferguson, Gibson, Kaniewski, Kelley, Krontz, Mann, Marsh, McCullom, Sams, and Waxman.

The diligent Dunes Staff members who were preparing themselves for their big role next year were Jean Anderson, Nancy Applegate, Shirley Benson, Phyllis Chapman, Marjorie Hoffman, and Clem Singleton.

When a Herald publication was completed, Cocheron, Hesterman, Kansfield, Kuhlman, Smith, and Whitaker were to be complimented.

With every pencil and notebook sold in the bookroom came a smiling "thank you" from Chandler, Galinsky, Millbranth, Patargias, and Sulak.

Still full of pep for the year to come are Singleton and Strand, our cheerleaders.

If you wanted to see an educational film, Evanoff, Hayworth, Hogue, Krontz, Law, Michelin, Peterson, Shoemaker, and Smith, working as Visual Aid Staff members, could help you.

Don't ever start a verbal debate with Burbach, Bock, Charlton, DeWest, Ridinger, Tieman, or Waxman, for in speech work you can't beat them.

The musically talented Juniors numbered many. In the orchestra were Barrett, Byers, Gibson, Golgart, King and Kouris.

On the way to some of the auditorium sessions you could hear the lively marches of the Senior Band. The Juniors who contributed to its success were Burbach, Chance, Cook, Dale, Dawson, Kines, Ferguson, Gorecki, Harakal, Hogue, King, Kooken, Kremer, Lee, Metzcus, Nagel, Ribicke, Ritter, Robaska, Rohn, Sanger, Schwenke, Stuart, Weldon, Whithead, and Zoldos.

Working their way up to the Senior Band are Domanski, Kaniewski, Le Tour, Lokken, and Mauger, the Junior Band members.

Along the vocal line were Anderson, Cain, Demaree, Hammond, Huebner, Jones, Jongsma, Kelley, Klee, Kopp, Kowalysyn, Laughlin, Muller, Nelk, and Rhind in the Choir; and Child was the only Junior in the Boys' Chorus. In the Girls' Chorus were Bingham, Bauer, Compbell, Gavrilos, Hildebrand, Johnson, Kaiser, Mears, and Varner.

The remaining potential Juniors who are members of the Choral Club are Dilts, Ellis, Field, Gyurko, Hammond, Hassel, Hutchinson, Kack, Kaegebin, Melton, Rodmaker, Sams, Seitzinger, Siple, Steele, Strand, Thomas, Tieman, Vesey, Weeks, Wigle, and White.

Junior members of the Glee Club were Allegree, Ballard, Fasan, Gibbs, Howat, Jones, Krasnichan, Kraus, Laws, Marsh, Mills, Pappas, Paeterson, Rector, Ruch, Rivett, Sheets, Sipes, Slocum, Tanis, Todd, Walker, Wilkins, and Williams.

Looking forward to another season of football and another try at the state championship are Budnyk, Ceglian, Connery, Friend, Gussman, Milazzo, Peterson, Rice, Snyder, Solan, Stump, and Turbin.

Hofferth, Neidow, Poteet, and Powley are determined not to let Lafayette stop them next year.

On the basketball-B squad Powley, Ramsey, Sachs, and Solon were preparing for bigger games.

Abrahamson, Gabovitch, and Tieman were members of the tennis squad.

Members of the swimming team who helped mark up those many victories were Bobinsky, McLaughlin, Schuler, and Whitaker.

Not only beating out their brains but also beating out their feet are Bajza, Black, Brandon, Colgrove, Ferguson, Grafton, Misel, Neve, Oakley, Ramsey, and Strachan on the cross-country team.

"Whitey" has Abrahamson, Black, Friend, Jacobs, Milazzo, Misel, Neve, Solon, Strachan, Humble, and Williams to cope with on the track team next year.

Many high flies to right and left fields were made by Bobinsky, Budnyk, Hofferth, Milazzo, Mann, Rice, and Poteet on our baseball team.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore Class officers were Michael Woelfel, president; William Yedinak, vice-president; Ed Cox, secretary; and Naia Conrad, treasurer. The helpful class counselor and sponsor was Mr. Brock.

Fred Blackmun acted as the sophomore judge. The sophomore senators were Virginia Ebert and Mary Ann Hopman.

Casting their votes in the House of Representatives were Abrahamson, Carroll, Doyle, House, Korellis, Olson, Posner, Wieland, and Wilson.

When it came to taking temperatures, Jean Frazier could have helped you, for she was on the Nurse's Staff.

Aspiring orators were Appleman, Hansen, Steinmetz, and Wieland.

John Michelin was on the Visual Aid's Staff.

The Choir had the following sophomores in it: House, Kauffman, Krueger, MacNary, Norden, Towers, and Wolber.

Sophomore members of the Choral Club were Byrnes, Cross, Fox, Graban, Hansen, Hart, Hayworth, Lucas, Martens, McCoy, Morford, Shadley, Shope, and Turpin.

Sophomores in the Glee Club were Adams, Ashford, Black, Burnison, Bystrom, Campbell, Chayken, Cooper, Deck, Desmond, Doyle, Forbes, Hankins, Meggers, Pleva, Reiff, Rhymer, Vaughn, and Vaux.

Appleman, Borman, Byrnes, Hargis, Harris, Hascall, Harwood, Heidtman, Hyland, Jones, Johnson, Keefe, Kittle, Korellis, Lien, Paschen, M. Smith, P. Smith, Stolarz, Souligny, Stump, Teeple, Thomas, Voorheis, and Wilson were members of the Chorus.

Musically minded were these sophomores who played in the Senior Band: Banta, Brown, Camp, Collins, Derbisz, Dwoznik, Eubanks, Haman, Howard, Keilman, McCullough, Spencer, Sumner, Tully, and Zengler.

Bermingham, DeFratus, Freeman, Gledhill, Greatrix, and Steinmetz were in the Junior Band.

Beautiful music was played by orchestra members Brandy, Byers, Hardy, Kaniewski, and Lewkowski.

Baliga and Stewart, members of the football team, will be back again next year, proving once more their loyalty to the "Purple and White."

Dribbling down the hardwood were B-string basketball players Auld, Babcock, Bandura, Phares, and Schmagranoff.

Abatie, Babcock, Blythe, Dietrich, Helmer, Jakubiec, Morford, Rausch, Sumner, Thompson, Watson, and Yedinak were the sophomores on the freshmen-sophomore basketball team.

No one could say that he had won a forty love game over Posner and Woelfel in the past tennis season.

The speedy sophomores on the cross-country team were Abatie, Alexander, Alt, Allison, Bizoukas, Blythe, Bolch, Hansen, Hoggatt, House, Leary, Phares, Pomplin, Turpin, Warner, and Yedinak.

Everyone will always remember Joe Baliga, the only sophomore on the basketball team, who tried his hardest at Lafayette.

Some of the most outstanding sophomore swimmers that Hammond High has ever had were on this year's varsity squad. They were Brueckmann, Etter, Hagerman, Martin, Florence, and Wiborg. Coming right along to keep up the good work are Kauffman, Malinowski, Petrie, Posner, and Shaw on the B-team.

Boatman, Baliga, Schmagranoff, and Phares did their part on the baseball team.

Whitey has the following material to work with on the track team for the next two years: Abatie, Alexander, Alt, Auld, Bailey, Benson, Blackmun, Blythe, Bolch, Chizmar, Crutcher, Etter, Hansen, Harwood, House, Hoyle, Kroslack, Kuzos, Lang, Mattoon, Pomplin, Powell, Purdy, Watson, and Yedinak.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshmen Class leaders were Charles Copple, president; James Howard, vice-president; Joyce Kroush, secretary; and Carol Gibson, treasurer.

All the "greenies" went to Miss Johnston, their class sponsor, for advice.

One of the high and mighty magistrates was James Wilkins, the freshman judge, and along with him were the freshmen senators, Jim McCullough and Judy Volkman.

Also participating in student government were the freshmen members of the House of Representatives; they were Andre, Bradley, Glitter, Mehler, Miller, Reynolds, Russo, and Slavin.

Meyer was the only boy on the Visual Aid's Staff that represented his class.

In speech work these tried their hardest to replace capably the older and more experienced workers: Beatty, Cochrane, Curtis, Freeman, Grant, Kroush, Rabin, Rose, Sennett, Soderstrom, and Van Blarcom.

Those freshmen who were talented enough to play in the Senior Band were Hartke, Madalon, Miller, Moore, Morris, Schaw, and Williams.

The potential Senior Band members were Kapantais and Klaus.

Those people who held up the freshmen part of the orchestra were Jantzen and Stefanski.

The freshmen boys in the Boys' Chorus were Ackerman, Bereolos, Bolch, Erikson, Fowler, Gregory, Humble, Jacobson, Lewis, and McNabney.

Anyone who worked in the south end of the basement during seventh hour could hear the Girls' Chorus. Anderson, Anton, Briggs, Buckley, Carley, Clem, Crutcher, Cummins, Ellison, Ernst, Gillespie, Grant, Hargrove, Hussey, Kerr, McLaughlin, Miller, Patton, Paddack, Plopper, Prange, Purkey, Reynolds, Rhodes, Schoenherr, Smith, Stefanski, Tobin, Trimble, and Vinyard were the vocalists.

The only freshmen in the Choral Club was Shirley Alexander and Boswell; Donovan, and Gladish were members of the Glee Club.

Mr. King's prospects for the future years are the members of the freshmen-sophomore basketball team: Hardan, Horn, McNabney, Metzen, Schafer, Snow, Whitehead, Woelfel, and Wozniak; the only freshman on the B-team basketball team was Jim McCullough.

Winged-footed freshmen out for cross-country were Brauer, Edwards, Horwitz, Lewis, Pastar, Richards, Rudolph, Schafer, and Washington.

The track team's prospects for the coming years are Brauer, Curtis, Egnatz, Freeman, Kiger, Lewis, Marionowski, McCarter, Reed Shaw, Slavin, Spoerner, Walsh, Washington, and Schafer.

McCullough and Shaw were the freshmen who listened for that order, "batter up."

The scholastically honored freshmen were the members of the Ace of Clubs. They were Edwards, Sennett, Van Blarcom, Mehler, Kuiper, Beatty, Ward, Norton, Winkles, Harbin, Miller, Chapman, Gibson, Kutzner, Soderstrom, Kroush, Bradley, Rabin, Copple, Olson, Yalowitz, Christianson, Chick, Pickford, Screiber, Tankel, Miller, and Quint.

activities

the activities have grown so around hammond high that some people have been wondering just what the place would be like without them. clubs, staffs, the association, the homecoming, mardi gras, louie's day, association week, the friday night dances, and all the work and fun wrapped up in them never existed to any great extent fifty years ago, were undreamed of when the curriculum was first established, and had no significance in a high school education. now how important our activities are! and how the years have changed our accepted thoughts . . . formed new patterns of living . . . and brought a completely new attitude toward high school life. today the social and academic are thought of as interdependent for a balanced education rather than the former's being solely dependent upon and subordinate to the latter. this is progress.

ACTIVITIES

The ACE OF CLUBS is an honorary organization for those freshmen who take their books in hand and buckle down to pull through with at least a "B" average in all their classes. Being a member of this club is a prize highly honored by the incoming class and well it should be, as the members are among the most respected of the Freshmen. Organized in 1923, the club goes far in helping its members become better acquainted with each other, while providing the opportunity to participate in club programs and school leadership.

The officers for the first semester were Charles Egnatz, president; Charles Miller, vice-president; Harriet Van Blarcom, secretary; and Charlotte Sennett, treasurer. The officers for the second semester were Mary Kutzner, president; Myrna Yalowitz, vice-president; Phyllis Beatty, secretary; and Tom Kapantais, treasurer. Miss Pritchard was the sponsor.

The HAMMOND HIGH SCHOOL ASSOCIATION, of which every student and teacher is an important part, strove to increase student participation in school activities, and to promote a stricter interpretation of the school code of conduct. To develop new ideas concerning an improved social program, trips were made by Association leaders to the University of Chicago High School and to the LaGrange High School to observe the activities of these schools. Carrying out the promotion of student participation in activities, the Homecoming Parade offered any club or advisory the opportunity to display its purpose in the form of a float. Prizes were presented to the Expanded Arts Club and the Booster Club for the best floats. All bodies of the school again cooperated in making the Mardi Gras another big success.

A ceremonial gathering in front of Hammond High School began Association Week; and International Day, Student Teacher Day (in cooperation with the A. L. Spohn Future Teachers of America Club), and Association Day, on which an auditorium program was given honoring Mr. Spohn, made this week interesting and educational. A lively Twirp Dance ended Association Week.

Included in the legislation passed was a bill officially affiliating the Booster Club with the school Association. Besides the many auditoriums, both entertaining and informative, which the Association financed and sponsored, entertainment for students was furthered by the lunch hour activities and entertainment in Room Five. This room has become a social melting pot for students, because there they may meet with their fellow students and, while enjoying themselves in the numerous activities afforded here, they can easily make new acquaintances in an atmosphere where informality prevails. Articles and pictures published in the school page gave the school good publicity. Extensive work has also been done on the revision, improvement, and enlargement of the student handbook.

The Association was headed by Tum Lunsford, with Mel Ein and Audrey Perry vice-president and recorder, respectively.

The cabinet consisted of John Harrigan, Secretary of Student Activities; Emily McGuire, Secretary of Public Safety; Alice Boyd, Secretary of Publicity; and Mary K. Grant, Secretary of the Red Cross.

The AUTOMOBILE CLUB, which is a part of the National Safety Council, has as its main objective to better the safety record of Hammond through promoting both home and traffic safety. Cooperating with the local officials, the Club sponsored an extensive safety campaign and aided the police department in taking surveys. The placement and time limits on the local parking meters were largely determined by the results tabulated by the club.

The Auto Club sponsored four auditorium programs this year. They included Sam Campbell, the well known philosopher of the forest, who showed colored movies of his observations and experiences in the past year; Anita Blair, with her seeing eye dog, Fawn, who spoke of her adventures since the accident that caused her blindness; John Bruce of the Standard Oil Company, and Secretary of State Fleming, who talked about highway safety.

The officers were Richard Sandler, president; Mel Miles, vice-president; Joan Whittmer, secretary, and Martha Haag, treasurer. Bob Bock was president the first semester.

The BAND we must thank for those peppy marches during football game halves, and for the rousing renditions of Hammond Loyalty which stirred rooters to benumbed feet after each touchdown. For special auditorium sessions and pep-sessions they also "lent" their music. The band attended the state contest again this year.

By virtue of their winning the state music contest last year, the band was given a trip to Bloomington, Indiana last summer. This trip, made possible by the band members' parents, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. On the way down, the group stopped at Turkey Run for a picnic before proceeding to Indiana University where they explored the campus and later attended a concert put on by the University of Indiana band.

The JUNIOR BAND participated in the January concert with the Senior Band, attended the state contest, and played for their parents at the band-parents' meeting.

The BOOSTER BAND, which certainly did a great job of boostering spirit at the basketball games, deserves a special cheer. Their jazz between halves attracted at least stares to the purple and white side of the bleachers.

The ORCHESTRA combined with the Senior Band to put on the Spring Concert, and went with both Band groups to the state contest this year. Many Orchestra members made up various ensembles; trios; sextettes, and quartetted which provided opportunities for talented music students to further develop their skill. Fifty entries went to the solo contest at Crown Point, and other groups made public appearances before civic organizations and church groups.

As if inspired by the free ride and free eats afforded them after last year's victory, this year the band again won the state music contest and will be rewarded by a similar trip to the University of Illinois this summer.

Mr. Gekeler and Mr. Dierks are the music instructors.

The BOHEMIAN CLUB, speaking of literary ability, has an ample share, for here are found the Elliots, Brownings, and Brontes of the future. (We aren't deliberately neglecting Shakespeare and Carlyle. It's just that all of these Bohemians happen to be of the feminine gender.)

The purpose of the club is to encourage creative writing and give the individual an opportunity to increase his interest and technique in writing. The results are poems, short stories, essays, and other various kinds of compositions, names for which have yet to be found, created in the true bohemian style (with a maximum of pencil chewing) and read and criticized during the club meetings. These people are to be complimented for keeping the literary end of our education truly explorative and genuinely imaginative. The products of their talents extend far in influencing and recording the thoughts of our age. And, from reading several of them, we would just as soon go back to the good old day, thank you.

The Bohemian Club activities included sponsoring a balloon booth at the Mardi Gras (blowing up balloons is recommended as an excellent outlet for those wrought up feelings experienced by every true Bohemian) and furnishing material for the "Creative Bohemian" page in the school newspaper. Every different kind of story and poem is published there, and ohhhooo, what the printers must think about us and our experiences. The members also attended a stage play in Chicago during the spring—"The Mad Women of Chaillott." See, what did we tell you?

Betty Kalbac was president; Marilyn DeBarge, vice-president; and Helen Stickler, secretary-treasurer. Miss Allman was the sponsor.

The BOOKROOM STAFF got tired of all work and no play and organized a staff club, whose purpose is just to talk things over every Tuesday during club period.

This is the same staff whose workers are experts on everything from the proper method of stamping books to the latest techniques of how to talk the public into buying Wildcat stickers. This is also the same staff that annually engages in the hiding of tournament tickets.

They raised money for their staff party at Phil Shmidt's by selling pop at the adult basketball drawing.

The head of the staff was Virginia Sulak, who was assisted by vice-president Elaine Patargais, secretary Betty Galinski, and treasurer Jerry Chandler.

Mr. Fruehling and Mr. Rupp are the sponsors.

The BOOSTER CLUB feels they have the recipe for promoting school spirit, and, from the top grade of boostering they get from the school, we're positive of it. The recipe includes much cheering, a good amount of the right kind of sportsmanship, immeasurable enthusiasm, plenty of fun and good humor, and a trifle of signs and shakers.

Officially recognized as a school club for the first time this year, the club went all out in campaigning for supporters. The club promoters held that since everyone in Hammond High is a member of the club, everyone should take part in its activities, which include such things as painting signs, making shakers, and lending lusty lungs to the games. Pep sessions were planned by a steering committee, along with a half dozen other things such as auditorium sessions (enough in themselves) and stunts at the games (Willie the Wildcat). The experiences had by the members of the committee will be forgotten just about as soon as our whole high school days are; and, gathering from what our parents talk about, that's a thing that never happens. A good word should be said for this organization for, without it, the games just wouldn't be what they were. Head booster was Ted Perry, while Pat Smith was kept busy serving as vice-president, secretary and treasurer all at the same time. Mr. Bolt and Mr. Schultz were the sponsors.

The COURT, little appreciated but very much felt (you know what we mean if you have ever had a little green slip for some misdemeanor and have waited in trembling expectation for court day), has the duty of punishing all violators of Hammond high law. This body is made up of a Secretary of Justice who appoints four judges, one from each class. These judges hold office for one year, unless removed by the Secretary of Justice. This year the court met twice a month (which was hardly enough time to take care of all the desperate Hammond High law breakers).

Secretary of Discipline was Tom Skrentny, senior judge was Janet Smith, junior judge was Douglas Stuart, sophomore judge was Fred Blackman, and freshman judge was Jim Wilkins.

Mr. Lundgren sponsored the court.

The DRAMATIC CLUB with Trudy Eggers as president, Phyllis Bradley as vice-president, Evelyn Kowalysyn as secretary, Gerry Langendorff as treasurer, and Miss Kennedy as sponsor, gives those students who are struck with the fever of acting, the opportunity to smear greasepaint on themselves, cry false tears, and "Ahh Romeo" to their hearts' content. At each club meeting the members give either plays or pantomimes, and at the Mardi Gras they gave "The Burglar" for a crowd of 240. Coming out of their creative trances for a while, the club members sponsored a dance in the spring. At the end of the season they were working on a play called "The Rector" which they expected to give before school dismissed for the summer.

The DUNES is here again. As usual, we have bothered the teachers, pestered the students, driven Bodie crazy (or vice-versa) and have spent countless seventh periods drowned in pencils, scratch paper and facts, trying to set up this year's annual in a manner most pleasing to everyone. (We admit that occasional ice-cream cones in room ten helped promote literary genius.) So, biting our tongues and twisting our hands, we can say, modestly and hopefully, that we hope The Dunes gets out before next August.

Now, in 1950, we are at a half way mark in a century. In the past, many changes have taken place which affect us now and will affect us in the future. We can look back to the good old days and think of the fun we had. Yet we can look ahead into a future full of many more good times. The 1950 Dunes is dedicated to the past and to Mr. Spohn, long the honored principal of Hammond High School. And it is also dedicated to the future and Mr. Rapp. It is both a goodby and a hello.

In the fall the Dunes presented an auditorium session called "A Slide View of Hammond High Through 50 Years." It consisted of slide pictures of past students and teachers. After basketball season the Dunes Staff gave a party for the basketball team, with ice cream tarts and Miss Comer's special cookies.

The Dunes editorial staff consisted of Marilyn Burnett, Joyce Gevirtz, Dick Tinkham, Clark Wagner, Laurel Groff, Bob Kutak, Clem Singleton, Nancy Applegate, Phyllis Chapman, Marjorie Hoffman, Shirley Benson, Jean Anderson, and Bill Rinne.

Those on the business staff were Doris Bush, Marlene Cole, Helen Stickler, Bill Perdew, Pat Smith, Dick Dickerson, Carol Geib, and Eileen Eetherling.

Mr. Dunham is financial advisor of The Dunes; Miss McGranahan is the faculty editorial advisor.

The EXPANDED ARTS CLUB, which was formed in 1926 by several students interested in carrying through with art projects extracurricularly, is sponsored by Miss Schubkegel and dedicated to the "three S's." The club lives up to the good old principles which are service to the school and community, sensitivity to basic art qualities, and social activities for better opportunity in getting acquainted and working together on a definite theme.

This year the Expanded Arts Club tied for first prize for the most attractive float in the Homecoming Parade. They sold Christmas cards made by the members and sponsored the "Corny Holerday" concession at the Mardi Gras. The club has been officially attributed with ridding the school of stray-dog attraction by plastering the halls with frightening attempts at surrealism. Special meetings included a potluck supper for initiation, and a guest speaker and movie. They were known for their clever initiations and exceedingly active program.

Club meetings are held weekly after school. Louis Karubas acted as president; Jack Bates, as vice-president; Betty Allison, as secretary; and Caroline Allison, as treasurer. Second semester officers were Jack FRENCH! "I ci on parle francias. Oui, oui!" If you are wondering what all that means (we could tell you, but we don't want to), you might step in to room 207 some Tuesday during lunch hour or after school and ask Miss Kessing or her FRENCH CLASS. On second thought, perhaps you had better ask just Miss Kessing.

This extra curricular class learns grammar (they think the hard way) during the after-school sessions and follows the scratchy phonograph needle on the record for correct pronunciation during the lunch hours.

All the members, before they registered for the class, had some plans about visiting the place when they had finished the course; but now, once they have got into the thing, they think that they would just as soon stay home, thank you!

The FUTURE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION was organized for those students who dream of the day when they can stand before a class and pour forth to enraptured minds of their students 99.44% pure words of knowledge. Keeping this goal in mind, the future teachers discuss and learn about the qualifications and advantages in the field of teaching, which come as somewhat of a surprise to most students who are convinced that teaching requirements are negligible and advantages non-existent.

Mr. Caldwell was made an honorary member of the F.T.A. at the impressive candlelight ceremonies for the formal initiation of the club. At a joint meeting with the Clark Future Teachers' Club several teachers discussed the benefits and drawbacks of teaching.

In appreciation for the many years which Mr. Spohn contributed to the teaching profession at Hammond High the club was named the A. L. Spohn Chapter of the F.T.A. in his honor.

The officers this year were Jack Lyle, president; Margaret Zevos, vice-president; Joan Ruch, secretary; and Dick Abney, treasurer. Assisting them were Joyce Salos, librarian, Mary K. Grant, parliamentarian; Maejette Erickson and Rita Miller, song leaders. Miss Kessing and Mr. Soderquist were the sponsors.

The GERMAN CLUB, with Betty Finger as president, Thelma Hestermann as vice-president, Jim Whitehead as secretary, and Phyllis Warner as treasurer, began the year with its annual initiation at which the new members gave the traditional pledge and introduced themselves to the older members of the club in German. At Christmas there were St. Nikolous Tog and Weihnachten. The students, carrying out the theme to an even greater extent by speaking German socially, experienced the life of a large German family at holiday festivals. With first rate advertisements by Harlan Fredricks and his nineteenth century pants and sword, the club sold German cakes at the Mardi Gras. With all this and Miss Reichl as their sponsor too, the German Club finished the year with a busy yet enjoyable program.

The GIRLS' CHORUS is the beginning vocal group in which students receive elementary training. Largest of all the music classes, the Girls' Chorus is open to any student who passes certain singing tests. This group was featured in the South Pacific scene in the Spring Vocal Concert (they wore grass skirts) and they also appeared in the Christmas concert. They participated in the Easter Auditorium, City Music Festival, Commencement, and Baccalaureate.

Maejette Erickson and Marilyn Brown accompanied this group first and second semester, respectively.

The GIRLS' GLEE CLUB is the second step in the journey toward the most advanced of the vocal groups.

This year they sang at the City Music Festival, the Spring and Christmas Concerts, the Easter Auditorium, Commencement, and Baccalaureate.

The Glee Club accompanist was Carol Williams.

The CHORAL CLUB is an advanced group new to the Vocal Department this year. Singing more difficult music, they are similar to the A Cappella Choir, except that they have piano accompaniment.

They sang in the following performances: the Christmas Concert, the Spring Concert, the City Music Festival, the Easter Auditorium, Commencement and Baccalaureate.

Pat Hart was the accompanist.

The A CAPPELLA CHOIR, the most advanced of the vocal groups, is a mixed choir of juniors and seniors. Members are required to have had at least one year of vocal training and must pass individual tests.

They sang at the Christmas and Spring Concerts, the City Music Festival, the Easter Auditorium, Commencement, and Baccalaureate. They also caroled at the City Hall, the Calumet National Bank, and Minas', and presented programs for the Kiwanas Club and the annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce.

Jean Anderson played the piano.

The VOCAL ENSEMBLES are the selected groups which are formed for those students who are interested in advanced training. They include The Eight Notes, a boys' double quartette; The Melodears, a group of twelve girls; The Chansonettes, nine girls who appeared on the radio in "Tunes and Teens" and at the Palmer House for the National Art Educators Conference; and the Girls' Sextette. In demand and very busy, these groups have sung all over the region and each has received a first division rating at the state contest. Miss Waterbury directs the vocal groups.

The GIRLS' SWIMMING CLUB may be a baby in years, but its members certainly didn't waste any time getting into the swing of things from the display they put on at the Mardi Gras. Large crowds flocked to the girls' pool to watch the graceful kickings and spoutings that came in the show called "School-Daze," and, for such a turn-out, the girls felt compensated for all the straight hair, red eyes, and near drownings that were the results of the before-show practices.

Meeting every Monday night after school, the "star fishes" practiced speed swimming, ballet strokes, fancy diving, and different techniques. Marilyn Burnett and Joyce Gevirtz organized the club and Miss Dieterich acted as its sponsor. The Dunes staff congratulates them on their successful initial year and joins them in hoping that they keep the drownings down to a minimum.

The HERALD introduced the Budget Ticket to promote an efficient combining of activities and to lessen the strain on the student's wallet. It cost two dollars and included admission to several dances, movies, and concerts, and a subscription to the Herald. Representatives from the Herald attended the National Scholastic Press Association Convention at the Stevens Hotel in Chicago; Evelyn Pierce, Janet Smith, and an advisor from Clark went to the Indiana High School Press Association State Convention in the fall. Evelyn Pierce was publisher of the Herald. Bill Graham was editor and sports editor. He was assisted by Fred Blackmun and Marvin

Bolling. News editor Sally Kansfield was assisted by Larry Tieman, and Moureen Blany was the club editor. Gloria Simpson, Janet Smith, Sheldon Tilkin, Eleanor Koscielnik, and Barbara Stolartz did the features.

Advertising manager was Helen Kuhlman, and her assistants were Carol Hesterman, Jeannie Caroll, and Joan Pozdol. Circulation manager was Frances McPherson, who was assisted by Larry Tieman, Sheldon Tilkin, and Bernadette Krawczyk. Librarian was Harlan Frederick, and typists were Dave Koval, Charlotte Simmons, and Joan Mirzalli.

Sponsor, advisor, and critic was Mr. Bolt and Mr. Dunham was the financial advisor. The supporters were the whole school.

The JUNIOR HI-Y attended in the fall the annual Hi-Y conference with boys from all parts of Indiana. For the needy they filled Thanksgiving baskets. They sponsored a candy (Goff's saltwater taffy to be exact) concession at the Mardi Gras and solicited contributions at Hammond High for the March of Dimes.

They went about the job of creating, maintaining, and extending throughout the community a high standard of Christian character in a heartwarming way.

Carroll Fowler was president; John Pomplin, vice-president; James McNabney, secretary; and James McCullough, treasurer. Mr. Lundgren was the sponsor.

The SENIOR HI-Y members' most important activity this year was the selling of Christmas trees. Ignoring frozen fingers and toes and using their very best salesmen's smiles, the boys proved that there was no dead wood in their organization by selling out to the last twig for a profit of four-hundred dollars. A portion of the profit will go to the World Service, and the rest will be used for other worthwhile activities and for assisting members to attend conferences. The efforts of the Senior Hi-Y have promoted a spirit of good will throughout the community as well as at Hammond High.

For the second consecutive year the Hammond High School Hi-Y was the winner of the King Plaque, an award given to the Hi-Y club having the best all round program in the state.

Other activities which added to the busy year were ushering at the athletic events and the Music festival, donating to the Red Cross and to the March of Dimes, and assisting in the March of Dimes canvass. Sponsored by Mr. Overman, the Senior Hi-Y officers were Don Krontz, president; Ed Laskowski, vice-president; Bill Minder, secretary; George Barcus, treasurer; and program chairman, Ed Noonan.

The H-MEN'S CLUB, whose purposes are to maintain and develop a high standard of citizenship and school morale among the students, to promote beneficial school activities, and to establish a more democratic school spirit has had an active year fulfilling to its best abilities these fine goals. They sold basketball programs at the games, gave an after-game dance in the Civic Center, set up a pop booth at the Mardi Gras, sponsored an auditorium session in which movies on the 1948 Olympics were shown, attended several hockey and baseball games, and honored award winners in the high school sports department with banquets. At the annual Father and Son dinner exhaustive research was done by the toastmasters to find jokes that would entertain the guests.

The club was formed in the fall of 1946 and is composed of boys who have earned their varsity sport letters. The president was Alan Fox; Dick Tinkham, vice-president; Tom Powers, secretary; Don Ziehl, treasurer; and Marty Davis, sergeant-at-arms. The mention of the last office brings to mind the question of what goes on at their meetings, anyway? Mr. Nelson was the sponsor.

The INTERNATIONAL CLUB'S program consisted of trips to colorful Chinatown and Hull House; travel talks and pictures of such fascinating places as Guatamala, Africa, England, and China; a Christmas party complete with a potluck supper (at which money that would have been spent on exchange gifts was used to buy a CARE package for a German Refugee family); a Christmas tree decorated in the true Chinese fashion; and a booth at the Mardi Gras that had cookies and candies representing all the major nations of the world. This year the club prepared a display for an international exhibit in Paris which represented three important phases of our life in this region through the mediums of both pictures and text; the club, the school, and the community. It emphasized the significance that each had in molding the life of this region. And, of course, one of the most interesting parts of the club program was the reading of the many letters received by club members from students in all parts of the world. While the correspondence was growing and growing, international friendship and good-will were being made stronger.

"Head Interpreter" was president Dorothy Fasan, to whom able assistance was given by vice-president Joan Guy, secretary Elizabeth Byers, and treasurer Alfred Cox. Miss Taylor was their sponsor.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE, once known as the S.P.Q.R. (translation found in Caesar's Sixteenth Gallic War, Volume 102), has as its purpose to keep the torch of ancient classical Greek and Roman knowledge alive in the modern world. In doing so, the club contributes a valuable service to our contemporary society, as the appreciation of the significance of classicalism is an important part of today's liberal education offered at Hammond High, and is likely to be overlooked if not emphasized by such organizations as this one. The officers were Patsy Kooken, president; Betty Bement, vice-president; Lura Gibson, secretary; and Marge Wilkin, treasurer. Miss Work was the sponsor.

In the Homecoming Parade the J.C.L. was represented by an unusual Roman chariot pulled by a real live horse (the only time the use of a pony was allowed). A Christmas party with caroling and a potluck supper, along with celebrations on Caesar's birthday and the birthday of the founding of Rome, indicates well enough the kind of meeting they had. In the Mardi Gras they sponsored an "easy-as-pie-to-win" cakewalk and ended the season with a picnic to which other Latin students from the Hammond schools were invited. To them the classics were anything but dead.

The JUNIOR HISTORICAL SOCIETY, named in honor of Sam B. Woods, a local historian, studied the history of Indiana. They learned about what was here long before Hammond High School was even thought of being built, and they read about "injuns" and "pioneers" and "swamps." Much of their studying was done in the book The First One-hundred Years, written and presented to the club by Mr. Sam B. Woods. Mr. Woods also talked to the club in April.

In the spring, two representatives of the club, Mr. Hill and Mrs. Byers went to Monticello to take part in the Northern State Junior Historical Society Conference, and earlier in the year Robert Law heard Dr. Lockridge present his historical drama on Tecumseh at South Bend, the site of a Tecumseh Indian Conference.

The pioneer Christmas tree in the main hall at Christmas was decorated by the Junior Historians, and the members dug themselves out of their historic gropings long enough to attend a modern Christmas party. In the spring they had a box social at which Sammy Walkoff played his tricks.

The president was Ted Humbert; the vice-president was Lorraine Nagy; the secretary was Dennis Holt; and the treasurer was Lois Miller. Mr. Hill and Mrs. Byers were the sponsors.

ACTIVITIES

The JUNIOR RED CROSS is a society whose purpose is to help the needy children and aged people of our community, and to foster friendship and understanding among young people all over the world. It is an organization of which every Hammond High School student is a part. The Junior Red Cross had a successful year. They filled 100 gift boxes for European children; cooperated with other high schools of Hammond in filling a large chest with school and medical supplies to be sent overseas; made stuffed animal toys for children both local and abroad, as well as knitted bed socks for invalids, and made checkers for veterans; participated in a window display in a local store which helped publicize the Junior Red Cross—made contributions to the National Children's Fund and the Local Children's Fund; and sponsored a candy sale at the Mardi Gras. They also supplied a book cart at St. Margaret's for the disabled, colored Easter eggs for the old people's home, and visited homebound students.

The group's chairman was Mary K. Grant; vice-chairman, Leona Marlow; secretary, Jerry Tankel; and treasurer was Gertrude Eggers.

The LIBRARY isn't the place to do your math . . . Will you please stay in your seats until the attendance is taken? . . . ahhhh, and don't you know that math is done in study halls, not the library? . . . you girls will have to stop giggling if you wish to remain in here . . . and you boys are going to have to stop making those girls giggle . . . These are only a representative few of the hundreds of warnings repeated day in and day out by the librarian Miss Hawver and her literary . . . er, library assistants. They are seriously considering cutting a record and playing it daily in intervals of several minutes. We're plugging for you, Miss Hawver. Experimenting with an idea which many industries and large libraries have adopted, the library proudly displays their new F.M. radio set which plays soft music during the study hours in order to help the students relax while reading. As a consequence, a recent poll's returns indicate that more students are using Lux than ever before.

This year both Mr. Hill and Miss Exley were faculty assistants to Miss Hawver and Carol Beilfuss was the student assistant; and they, together with several student librarians, pulled the student body through another year of special reports. The student body thanks them for their appreciated and, often, desperately needed assistance, sincerely.

"The MONITORS are coming. Cheez it!" is the one phrase known to all the members of the underworld of Hammond High which, when heard, sends terror throughout them. Just why people try to dodge them we really don't know; of course, our having a permanent admit might contribute to it. It is interesting to note that a local insurance company reports that 100% of all the monitors who reach the age of 98 die within the next few years, probably because of a nervous condition developed while serving their time here. But, because of the surprising number of former monitors who are reaching the retiring age (their abnormalities force them to quit earlier than most people), Miss Thiel, their sponsor, and Emily McGuire, her assistant, are seriously considering founding a Home For The Aged Monitors, in which they can run completely loose, passing out as many court notices as their little hearts (and cold hearts) desire.

Regardless, though, of what is said about them (and a lot is, especially in the court), the thankless duty they have assumed is genuinely appreciated by the students of the school and, to show their gratitude, they promise to do a whole lot better job when forging their admits next year.

The NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE is an organization the chief function of which is to organize speech chapters throughout the forty-eight states and to set up satisfactory competitive meets. It also encourages individual merit by recognizing superior speech students. The organization at Hammond High is headed by the five highest ranking speech students of the chapter. Known as the Forensic Board, they are Jack Burbach, Mary K. Grant, Robert Kutak, Leonard Peterson, and Clark Wagner.

Membership in the League is determined on a point system. Points may be won by participating in debate, individual speaking, or by making service speeches. Virtually all members of the speech arts club belonged to the National Forensic League, and they participated at meets held in Indiana and Illinois.

The sponsors of the group are Mr. T. D. Reed, who coaches varsity debate, and Mr. O. Matasar, who has charge of individual events and freshmen-sophomore debate.

When not in actual competition, the N. F. L. members practiced their verbal powers on the faculty and their fellow students which contributed to the frustration of the former and the confusion of the latter.

The NURSE'S STAFF serves the important duty of caring for the health of all the students and faculty. And, as you might guess, this isn't a small task they've assumed. Statistics released by them show that on the bitterly cold and rainy mornings attendance is surprisingly high while on the warm and sunny mornings it is just the opposite, a condition attributed to faulty bookkeeping. But it can't be denied that the staff members are among the most popular with their classmates.

A word of thanks is due Miss Latimer, the school nurse, and her faithful assistants for their untiring effort to make this school a healthier place in which to work. The Dunes staff knows that it is hard enough for us to handle our own headaches, much less someone else's.

The PLANT CLUB was organized in the fall of 1948 by a number of the biologically-inclined students who decided that things had gone too far; they thought that some sort of expert care could be given the plants that were beginning to look a little droopy, bug eaten, or dry. They not only wanted to learn about all the kinds of plants we have here but also to care for them. And, since then things have looked up for the leafy part of Hammond High, as the club members, under the careful supervision of Miss Reeder, have fulfilled those goals by attending to the plants in the library, cafeteria, halls, advisories, and especially, in the conservatory in room 106.

The officers this year were Ellen Clark, president; Ted Humbert, vice-president; Kay Ann Carley, secretary; and Marilyn White, treasurer. They and the other members of the organization are to be congratulated for the fine service they have given to the school.

The QUILL and SCROLL is the national honor society for high school journalists. The members were John Hancock, Evelyn Pierce, John Harrigan, Janet Smith, Gloria Simpson, Helen Kuhlman, and Bill Graham. A member of the Quill and Scroll must be a junior or a senior, must be in the upper one-third of his class scholastically, and must have had five-hundred inches of his copy printed.

The RADIO CLUB was organized this year to study radio. The club offers students an opportunity to study transmissions and receptions and the members are assisted in building radio sets guaranteed to compete with the best on the markets. Any last-half sophomore, junior, or senior who has a working knowledge of electricity and the ability to handle tools may bceome a member of the club. Having had some experience with a radio is helpful but not necessary. Future applicants should, though, we're told, have some rough idea of what radio is.

The officers of the club were Howard Lewis, president; Noel Nelson, vice-president; and Pete McMinds, secretary-treasurer. Keeping within the tradition of the radio, they have a sponsor, Mr. Wood. He probably ended up chief repairman also. The Dunes compliments them on their success in their initial year and hopes, as the boys themselves would say it, that they'll have as few short circuits as possible in the years to come.

The SCIENCE CLUB was organized this year for the purpose of working on individual projects especially designed to interests in the field of science. These individual projects are started at the beginning of the first, second or third year of high school and are continued through the fourth year. Whenever these scientific projects are finished, the members of the club are encouraged to submit them to the Science Search program for examination and, perhaps, reward. All students who have had at least one semester of science and passed with a "C" grade or better are eligible for membership in this club, along with those specially recommended by the faculty of the science department.

The officers of the club were Jack Burback, president; Vivian Snyder, vice-president; Jim Blake, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Wood, instructor of physics, was the sponsor.

The Dunes congratulates this club in a successful initial year and sincerely hopes that it meets with all the success duly deserved by such a worthwhile organization in its future years.

The SOCIAL REPRESENTATIVES, or the "we do it to please you" club strove for a better and more varied social and cultural program, and a better understanding of social graces among the students.

A new part of the Social Representatives' program this year was the popping and selling of popcorn during seventh hour and after school. Those "salts of the earth" could have told the industry a thing or two about mass production (and how to make a neat profit on the side).

In the social light, a fall welcome dance for the new students made getting acquainted easy and fun. At the close of the football season a homecoming dance for the team was given. A spooky after-school Hallowe'en party, "The Ghostly Ghost Party," in the lower halls promoted the frightening aspects of the day; movies provided the music at the Christmas Party as the dancers watched famous dance bands and singers (at least that's what it said in the script) on the screen; and a wacky Louie's Day Dance was the annual tribute to our honored HHS ghost, whose long secretive courtship of a female ghost named Lollie blossomed into marriage (the ceremonies of which were held in room 4 in true cafeteria style). On the cultural side was a freshmen tea and an exhibit of pictures on etiquette shown in room 5.

The officers were John Harrigan, secretary of student activities; Tom Powers, under-secretary of student activities; Pat Youngjohn, secretary; and Peggy MacNary, treasurer. Miss Sabin was their sponsor. Their leadership, along with the efforts of the many social reps individually, helped make this year's school days really successful.

The SPANISH CLUB enjoyed tamales, frijoles, and chocolate, the main dishes at the annual before Christmas Spanish supper. After dinner the group played Spanish games and sang Spanish songs.

In order to improve their speaking ability, members carried on club meetings in (ahem) Spanish. They also learned about Spanish customs and found out how to execute a Spanish dance.

In the Homecoming parade, the "espanoles" were represented by a float upon which sat two gaily dressed Spanish children; and at the Mardi Gras they sponsored a dart booth, at which people tried their luck at sticking darts into the head of a toreador bull.

The Spanish Club president was Pat Youngjohn; vice-president was Janet Smith; and secretary-treasurer was Viola Rector.

The SPEECH ARTS CLUB'S purpose is to promote skill in public speech and reading through debate, humorous and dramatic reading, original oratory, and extemporaneous speaking. In debating, logical procedure and teamwork are stressed, whereas, in the other events emphasis is put on interpretation and voice quality.

Officers were Jay Ridinger, president; Larry Tieman, vice-president; Mary K. Grant, secretary; and Phyllis Steinmetz, treasurer. Leonard Peterson was president the first semester. Mr. Matasar and Mr. Reed acted as sponsors.

During the course of the year members participated in tournaments throughout the state, the five biggest of which were at Howe, North Manchester, Terre Haute, Lafayette, and here in Hammond. An annual banquet held at Tiebel's concluded the year.

Aside from the benefit arrived directly from their speech work, members of this club found that they had gained immeasurable pleasure from their associations with speech arts members of other schools.

The VISUAL AIDS is the group we usually think of when the P.A. system blinks out in the middle of a speech or when the film goes haywire right in the most exciting part of the movie. When remembering, though, that the members of the staff are behind the scenes when things go right too, we can say that they have contributed much (who knows how many more hours you would have slept in class had it not been for those wonderful movies?) to furthering the cause of education at Hammond High. Headed by Mr. Seddelmeyer, with Bill Miofsky as chief operator, they have provided classes with movies, microphones, records, and sound effects while entertaining crowds in the auditorium with cartoons, community sings, and other movies, besides assisting in practically every session given there. Without their help almost every phase of our school life would have been incomplete. A word of appreciation is due to the staff and its directors.

The Y-TEENS, under the direction of Miss Thompson and Miss Alderton, were busy this year making stuffed animals to give to sick children at Christmas, selling taffy apples at the Mardi Gras, and contributing to the Red Cross by filling boxes to send overseas.

On the more lively side, there was the annual Y-Teen dance in the spring, and a watery splash party with fun and high jinx in the girls' pool. In the Homecoming parade the girls dressed up in Western costumes and sang cowboy songs from atop their float. Among those who couldn't distinguish the melodies were 40 thousand music-loving pigeons who hurriedly vacated the city. Mayor Anderson is now offering this service to other cities plagued by the pigeon menace.

Evangline Voris was president; Pat Reinert was vice-president; Rosanna Robaska was secretary; and Gail King was treasurer.

INTRAMURAL ACTIVITIES

INTRAMURAL

The newly organized intramural program was an important step forward in the athletics at Hammond High. The slogan "A Team For Every Boy and Every Boy On a Team" was carried out to the fullest extent. Intramural sports attempts to produce an opportunity for every boy to participate in athletic activities of his own choice. The response to the call for those boys who were interested in the program was overwhelming. Fifty-one signed up for cross country, 187 in basketball, 91 in bowling, 55 in swimming, 53 in ping pong, 122 in softball, and 41 in horseshoes.

Cross country was the first sport on the program and the meet was held on November 22, 1949. First prize and a turkey went to Lucius Brandon; Church was second; Kuzos, third; Yakimow, fourth; Boyle, fifth, winning at "fowl" play.

Basketball was the first sport on the winter program. The 187 boys who signed up were divided into two leagues with the freshmen and sophomores competing together and the juniors and seniors competing together. Results of the games were posted on the main bulletin board and the standings of the leaders were followed almost as closely as the scores of the varsity team. The champions of the junior-senior league were the "Ramblers." Members of the Champs were Pete Kokinda, Sam Budnyk, Jim Boyle, Jim Shoemaker, Bill Carpenter, Don Bradley, Jim Wright, Roger Hardesty, and Leroy Begrowicz. The schedules of the freshman-sophomore league were disrupted due to the coal strike, so a play-off game was necessary. In the crucial game the "Wolverines" defeated the "Terrors," 27 to 23. This made Ed Hendron, Harold Crutcher, Tom Carroll, Jerry Edwards, Mike Tegtman, Ray Zawada, John Pastar, Jerry Nerney, and Vernon Fisch the champions of this league.

Next on the schedule of winter sports was bowling. The 39 boys who participated in the program were divided into six teams. Champions of the league were the "Wizards" with a record of 16 wins and 5 losses. Members of the winning team were John Pastar, Don Lannan, Jerry Tankel, Herb Franson, and Doug Whitehead. The "Wizards" bowled the men of the faculty for the school championship and Mr. Wood's stiff muscles the following day told of the defeat that the men suffered.

An intramural swimming meet was held on March 16, 1950. Fourteen boys splashed their way to positions among the point winners. Eight events were held and it's a sure thing that Mr. Papais found some good material among the hidden talent that came out in this meet. Big guns were Dick Clarke with 12 points, Bill Hetrick with 10 points, and Gordon Johnson with 10 points.

A ping pong tournament was held during both lunch hours from March 1 to March 20. John Hancock was the fourth hour champion and Bill Snow was the fifth hour champion. In the play-off Hancock defeated Snow 13-21, 21-14, and 21-16.

At press time plans were underway for a complete schedule of softball games. Because of bad weather, the program was late in starting. Tentative plans were being made for a horseshoe and tennis tournament.

JOHNNY WAURO

How does it feel for a photographer to be photographed? He probably made a better subject than most of us who hurried out of classes past the monitors, and when asked for our admits replied gleefully, ". . . goin' to have pictures taken for the Dunes!"

Johnny put up with us and even made some of us look like movie stars. Yours is a thankless job, Johnny, but nevertheless, we want to take this opportunity to do just that. . . . "Thanks, Johnny."

sports

the sports were extremely few around 1900. it wasn't that they were unheard of, just unthought of, in our school system. and they have changed so greatly since that time that today's games would hardly be recognized from yesterday's rules. but the transition has carried along with it most of the sports' fine traditions . . . fair play, keen competition of different kinds, and hard work. while it has grown in years, so has it joined in numbers . . . tennis, golf, swimming, cross country all joined the ranks of the giants, football, basketball, track, and baseball. around 1900 few students found time enough during high school to participate fully . . . schedules were arranged differently. and now . . . have you been down to the gyms around seventh period lately? there's movement down there, all right.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year of cross country marked the fourth year of active participation for John Adams, Emil Krejci, Edgar Menning, "Dink" Tinkham, Clark Wagner, and Don Ziehl. After four years of running during the heat of late summer and the coolness of fall, these boys, along with Harry Black, Heath Strachan, Gene Misel, and Joe Abatie who were also on the varsity squad, have concluded that no sport requires more exhaustive training.

Cross country has never been a sport in which the participants are idolized like those of basketball and football, and undoubtedly it never will be. This year's team consisted of a group of boys who enjoyed the companionship they found in running with each other.

Every season these boys would look forward to the next, always anticipating a more favorable year. And this year—the last for many of them—the team, after a rugged season which processed many of Whitey's blond hairs to grey, won the sectional and went to Indianapolis to compete in the state meet.

With the season over, many of the boys revert to little events or instances which will remain indelible in their minds. They will not soon forget how "Whitey," dressed in overcoat and scarf, would frequently remind them during the course of a workout in freezing weather "how nice the weather is."

FOOTBALL

In August of the year 1949 there assembled for the fiftieth time, a football team to represent Hammond High School on the gridiron. The season provided players and fans alike with their share of thrills and proved to be one of the most successful seasons in recent years. Coach Nelson picked his team from the 32 candidates who came out on that hot August day and apparently he picked well, for the squad ended with a record of six victories and three losses for second place in the conference.

SUMMARY OF GAMES

HHS versus Mishawaka

The first game of the year had Hammond showing signs of promise in both the line and backfield. It was Hammond all the way and the game was never in doubt after the third quarter when Wally Vernasco, sparkplug of the Maroons, left the game with a broken leg. Touchdowns by Brumley, Hoffman, and Stump and Brumley's two extra points gave the Wildcats a 20 to 0 victory over Mishawaka.

HHS versus Thornton Fractional

The Wildcats engaged in one of the roughest games of the season and came out the victor, 26 to 6. The big Hammond line, with the fast drives of Brumley and the power drives of Mallehan, enabled Hammond to completely outclass the smaller team from across the state line. The Wildcats gained 233 yards to 20 for Fractional. Baliga hit for 5 of 9 passes thrown in this game, but Cecil Ferguson provided the thrill of the game with a 76-yard run from scrimmage for a touchdown.

HHS versus Clark

Hammond gave notice in this game that it was one of the powers to be reckoned with. The Wildcats scored in the second period on a two-yard punch by Mallehan. Again in the third quarter they marched down the field and Brumley drove over from the 12-yard line. After an exchange of punts, Clark made the mistake of letting Brumley get his hands on the ball and he promptly went 33 yards behind good interference to a touchdown. Final score, HHS 20, Clark 0.

HHS versus Roosevelt

The Cats entered the game undefeated in three starts and were determined to stretch it into four. But Roosevelt monopolized on every Cat mistake to subdue them, 27 to 14. The Wildcats first T.D. was scored on a two-yard plunge by Mallehan after Brumley had raced twenty yards to the 2-yard line. The final score was made by Baliga on a two-yard quarterback sneak.

HHS versus Whiting

Hammond and Whiting engaged on the 14th of October in the kind of game that few players enjoy. The game was always in doubt. The Cats led in practically every department of statistics including the score. The 14 to 12 score would have been larger, but the Cats were without the services of Harold Brumley, the eventual high scorer of the year. Baliga's reliable toe provided the margin of victory to give the Cats a four and one record so far.

HHS versus Evansville Reitz

The game began in sensational style as on the opening play Brumley ran 64 yards for the only Cat score. The rest of the game was a hard-fought battle of the lines. The Cats led in every department except scoring and recovered fumbles. Both teams played this game without the services of their standout centers who were side-lined—Lietzan with a shoulder separation, and Steinmetz of Reitz with polio. The final score was Reitz 18, HHS 7.

HHS versus East Chicago Washington

Hammond didn't do anything right and Washington didn't do anything wrong in the last defeat of the season for the Wildcats. They fought hard for four quarters only to have their efforts nullified on two different occasions because of penalties. The score was Washington 20, HHS 7.

HHS versus Emerson

Hammond downed Emerson amid snow, hail, sleet, and rain by a score of 45 to 20. In a game that never was in doubt, the Cats scored more or less at will against a small and inexperienced Emerson team. Brumley made 3 touchdowns and had two called back. With a few more breaks the score might have been even greater.

HHS versus Hammond Tech

In the ninth and last game of the year the Cats hit top form against Hammond Tech. In the second quarter the Cats ran wild for 4 touchdowns and 3 extra points. Two Wildcat linemen received their thrill of the season when they scored touchdowns—Dave Schaeffer on a 50-yard pass interception and Thurman Ferree on a blocked kick. Final score was HHS 27, Tech 6.

FOOTBALL INDIVIDUALS

Clifford Alley—Guard—The short, pudgy senior who always worked and played his hardest.

Keith Benson—Fullback—A fast man with plenty of size . . . senior.

Joe Baliga—Quarterback—The sophomore sensation from Irving . . . what Joe lacked in experience he made up for in talent.

Sam Budnyk—End—Junior . . . outstanding on defense.

Harold Brumley—Halfback—Fastest man on the field . . . voted most valuable player.

Tom Etter—Guard—Tough and fiery senior . . . one of the most valuable linemen.

Bill Funston—Tackle—Considered one of the best in the state.

Thurman Ferree—End—Pass catcher deluxe . . . best offensive end on the squad.

SPORTS

Carl Friend—Fullback—All-around man . . . you'll see plenty of him next year.

Wilbur Hoffman—Halfback—Regular defensive halfback . . . valuable man.

Don Jones—Quarterback—Had the knowhow necessary for a top-notch field general.

Pete Kokinda—End—Teamed up with either Mahns or Ferree on offense.

Ernie Lietzan—Center—Dependable man to have at the center of the line . . . all-conference.

Jerry Mahns—End—Best defensive end on the team.

Chuck Mallehan—Fullback—Hard driver and an excellent line backer . . . captain.

Tony Millazzo—Tackle—Regular left tackle this year as a junior. . . . very fast for his size.

Frank Rice—Tackle—Will be in the running for a first string berth next season.

Harold Richter—Halfback—Fast and efficient . . . always played his hardest.

Dave Schaeffer—Guard—One of the hardest workers on the squad . . . regular right guard.

Bob Solon—Quarterback—Dependable substitute . . . back next year.

Chuck Stewart—Guard—Big and fast . . . only a sophomore.

Perry Stump—Halfback—Fast and shifty . . . gained lots of yardage in spite of an early season injury.

Dom Vicari—End—Had tough luck this year . . . broke his wrist just as he reached his peak.

Jim Yarovsky—Tackle—Dependable and tough . . . will be back next year.

Bill Connery—Guard—Spark plug special . . . Einstein of the team.

Jack Ceglian—Guard—Fiery guard who definitely had the will to win.

Louis Gussman—End—Only a junior this year . . . showed lots of promise for next year.

Al Snider—Center—Started out as a back but switched to center in mid-season . . . moved back to Utah at the end of the season.

Jack Peterson—Guard—Jack, along with the rest of the guards, had trouble getting into the positions filled by Schaeffer and Stewart.

Don Turbin—Tackle—Big junior who will see a lot of action next year.

The freshman-sophomore team of 1949 won nine games in a row. This team, led by Coach Patterson, had balance, speed, size, and experience, molded into a well-functioning unit that couldn't be beaten or tied. With a big line, a fast backfield, and a good pass-throwing quarterback, they combined a powerful running game with a fast passing attack. With the new version of Coach Nelson's T formation, they could become the champions of the Western Football Conference in the very near future.

SWIMMING

Great things were expected of this year's swimming team by virtue of the standouts returning and the great influx of promising underclassmen. Nor was any one to be denied, for the team compiled a record which will not be paralleled for some time. Their accomplishments could fill a whole page and here are but a few of them. Fred DePaoli, senior diver, was the conference champion for the third straight year and he was undefeated all season. Sophomore Bob Martin broke a twelve-year-old breaststroke record and he and sophomore backstroker Jim Etter won nearly every meet in which they participated. Collectively, the team compiled a perfect record, 11 wins and 0 defeats.

Climax of the season, of course, was the winning of the conference championship and the mythical state championship. And finally after all these many years it was discovered that "Pape" actually could stay afloat in the water when the victorious Wildcats gently but firmly shoved him in. "Pape" now holds the unofficial record for treading water.

VARSITY AWARD WINNERS

MINOR AWARD WINNERS

TENNIS

Tennis is a sport which is not too closely followed by the student body and the people of the community, but to its participants it affords an outlet for their energy and gives them a sport which is a source of pleasure long after they are unable to play basketball or football.

This year's team won four meets and lost three for a fairly successful season. However, Coach Overman has three juniors and two sophomores as a nucleus for next year's team. The season was climaxed when the team won second place in the conference, keeping pace with the fine showings of Wildcat teams in other sports.

Chuck Allegree, Joe Dixon, Bill Miofsky, and Curtis Gifford were the seniors who lent their assistance to the squad; Ed Gabovitch, Bob Abrahamson, and Larry Tieman were the juniors on the squad who will be important members of next year's squad; Mike Woelfel and Dick Posner were only sophomores and showed a great deal of promise for the next two seasons.

BASKETBALL

The Hammond High basketball team of 1950 set a Northwestern Indiana record by winning their third straight sectional and regional titles and thereby representing the northwestern part of the state at Lafayette in the semi-finals of the state tournament. The Wildcats again went down to defeat at the Purdue fieldhouse, but to reach the "Sweet Sixteen" is in itself a major accomplishment. It takes luck to go farther and apparently the Cats forgot their horse shoes and rabbit's feet, for they certainly were short-changed by Lady Luck.

The season gave many a thrill to the supporters of the Wildcat team, and even the severest critics were lavish in their praise of the Wildcats after their unsurpassed showing in reaching their season's peak against East Chicago Washington.

To single out the star of the team would be to name all twelve players. Each one played his part and the success of the team was largely due to their fine team play and to the fact that every player was a star in his own right at one time or another during the season. And so, here they are—the stars of the team . . . quite a galaxy, we'd say.

BASKETBALL INDIVIDUALS

Dick Tinkham—Captain . . . valuable rebounder . . . unfortunate injury caused him to miss part of the tournament. . . .

Gene Dubs—Played his best games when HHS was behind in the waning seconds. . . .

Tom Powers—Came through as a substitute many a time when called upon . . . hit his peak at sectional time. . . .

Don Scherer—A great driver . . . often wound up in the bleachers . . . took over as captain when Tinkham was out . . . all-conference. . . .

John Adams—Came up from the second string in mid-season and soon proved he was on the team to stay. . . .

Harold Richter—Extensive talents on and off the court, athletically and socially. . . .

Jim Granack—A great diplomat . . . could often be found "helping" the referees render their decisions. . . .

Joe Baliga—The super sophomore with the inexhaustible talents . . . consistently scored by stealing the ball from the opposition and going in for layups. . . .

Jim Neidow—One of the four juniors on the "tournament twelve" . . . expected to go places next year. . . .

Jim Poteet—A junior who mixed invaluable substituting ability with humorous satire from the bench. . . .

Dick Powley—The tall, red-headed junior who spent most of the season on the "B" team gaining experience for next year. . . .

BASKETBALL—SEASON SUMMARY

Hammond, 45; South Bend Central, 48 . . . Hammond opened the season in reverse by dropping their first game to a powerful quintet which featured four starting members of last year's state finalists.

Hammond High, 41; Hammond Tech, 39 . . . The Wildcats squeaked by their city rivals for their first victory.

Hammond High, 40; Ft. Wayne Central, 39 . . . Coming from behind in the last three seconds, Hammond clipped Ft. Wayne on a last second tip-in by Gene Dubs.

Hammond High, 42; E. C. Roosevelt, 44 . . . A still inexperienced Hammond team dropped this one to a team that listed the services of high-scoring Ray Pavechevich.

Hammond High, 47; Tolleston, 25 . . . A high scoring nine man team paved the way for the balanced scoring which was destined to become such a decisive factor in future HHS victories.

Hammond High, 37; Muncie Central, 43 . . . Finally getting into some kind of shape, HHS bowed out in the final seconds to a speedy Muncie quintet. The Wildcats have never beaten the Bearcats on the latter's home court.

Hammond High, 48; Lafayette Jefferson, 43 . . . Avenging a semi-final and a previous season defeat, the Wildcats displayed fine form in overcoming a ten point deficit and defeating Jeff's Bronchos.

(Holiday Tournament)

Hammond High, 49; Michigan City, 47 . . . Showing a fine spirit and a great will to win, HHS again came from behind to pull this one out of the fire in overtime.

Hammond High, 47; Griffith, 31 . . . The Wildcats advanced to the finals of the tournament by swamping Griffith, foremost team among the down county schools.

Hammond High, 53; Hammond Tech, 27 . . . The Kingmen proved that their early season victory wasn't a fluke by overwhelming Tech's Tigers to win the holiday tournament.

1950

Hammond High, 57; Whiting 45 . . . Don Scherer's 16 points sparked the Cats to a surprisingly easy win over Whiting.

Hammond High, 70; Laporte, 50 . . . Hamond scored 31 points in the fourth quarter to beat the Slicers for their fourth win without a loss to Laporte.

Hammond High, 65; Hammond Clark, 35 . . . Continuing their second half scoring sprees, the Wildcats scored 41 points in the second half to clinch their victory over Clark's gallant midgets.

Hammond High, 59; Valparaiso, 42 . . . Hammond's fast break was the decisive factor in this game as the Cats came from behind following a short rest, caused by a power failure in the gym, to defeat Valpo's fastly improving Vikings.

Hammond High, 61; Emerson, 48 . . . A tight Emerson zone baffled the Wildcats for three quarters before Hammond finally emerged victorious. This game stressed the importance of Hammond's balanced scoring attack.

Hammond High, 68; E. C. Washington, 48 . . . Playing their best game of the season, Hammond took an early lead over the Senators and blazed away to the tune of a .408 shooting percentage.

SPORTS

Hammond High, 43; Lew Wallace, 37 . . . Again mistified by an excellent zone defense Hammond waited until the final minutes before "icing" this one by the slim margin of six points.

Hammond High, 47; Hammond Clark, 28 . . . This typically hard fought battle, between these city rivals, featured two fast breaks pitted against each other. When the final gun sounded Hammond's Wildcats emerged victorious and continued a winning sreak which was destined to break the school record for consecutive wins.

Hammond High, 38; Froebel, 36 . . . Scherer's two free throws following a characteristic run-in with a hard wall proved to be the deciding margin of victory as HHS ended regular season play with a brilliant victory over a highly regarded Froebel five.

State Tournament Sectionals

Following easy victories over Lowell, 60 to 38, and Crown Point, 54 to 34, Hammond met Griffith in the sectional semi-final. This game was a see-saw battle until late in the third quarter when the Cats surged ahead and established a ten point lead which they didn't relinquish, going on to win, 55 to 43.

Advancing to the sectional final, Hammond met the only team which had dented the Cats' Civic Center record which ultimately was to be 19 victories and 1 defeat. Repeating their sectional final performance of a year ago, Hammond again defeated Roosevelt in another close game. Free throws and a last minute tip-in provided the winning margin for the Wildcats, 40 to 37, in overtime.

State Tournament Regional

Union Mills, making its first appearance in a regional since its entrance into the IHSAA, succumbed to the fastbreaking Wildcats in a lopsided game by a score of 73 to 40. Hammond's balanced scoring, its prime asset, was the decisive factor in the regional final against Froebel. The Wildcats were never behind in this game, although Froebel tied the score twice. Froebel made a desperate comeback attempt in the final quarter but when this rally fell short, Hammond emerged victorious and entered the "Sweet Sixteen."

State Tournament Semi-Finals

Entering the "Sweet Sixteen" proved to be quite bitter for Hammond High for the third straight time. The Wildcats didn't lose the game —they were beaten. They needed luck. They were as good as any team in the tournament as far as personnel, fight, and coaching were concerned, but the breaks just went against them. Lafayette got hot and swished the nets to the tune of a .457 shooting average and this, combined with a number of other factors, was enough to eliminate the Cats from the tournament by a score of 50 to 46.

BASKETBALL—B TEAM

Under the auspices of Coach Patterson, the '49 edition of Hammond's Kittens had a very successful season. The team was composed largely of juniors with underclassmen rendering valuable assistance.

They made the varsity's trip to Lafayette possible by the "brilliant instruction" which they gave them in intra-squad skirmishes and next year they're going to show them how to go all the way.

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL

This year's freshman-sophomore squad, loaded with eager aspirants, was given excellent tutelage by Mr. Brock, who is coaching basketball for the first time at HHS. Dreaming of eventual varsity berths, these yearlings attacked the science of basketball from every conceivable standpoint. They read sport magazines, mimicked the varsity players, and even picked up novel shots from watching television. When the season finally ended they had compiled a wealth of basketball knowledge which will determine the success of our future varsity teams.

BASEBALL

At press time the outlook for a successful baseball season at Hammond High was very good. Coach Patterson had eight lettermen returning from the 1949 squad, and there were a number of promising freshman and sophomores candidates.
The '49 team won five games while losing thirteen. The comparatively poor record was due to inexperience and the lack of a practice field. This year's team promised to have plenty of experience but whether they would have a suitable place to play their games was still in doubt.

The team will depend upon Scherer, Hofferth, and Schmagranoff for their hitting, while the pitching will be handled by Hughes, Mann, and Baliga. Coach Patterson will find it hard to find a suitable replacement for Bill Rinne, first string first-baseman, who was stricken with polio last summer. "Pat" will have two experienced outfielders—Pete Kokinda and Bill Boatman.

With a little luck, this year's team promised to really go places. All Coach Patterson needed at press time to insure a championship was for the school board to purchase Comiskey Park or Wrigley Field.

GOLF

The Hammond High golf team won their first meet from Lew Wallace by the score of 16½ to 4½. From all indications at press time, this promised to be the first of a long series of wins.

Coach King had two experienced star performers who competed for their last year—Jerry Homalla and Jim Granack. Backing them up were a great number of aspiring golf pros who braved the flooded Calumet from the time the snow was off the course in order to win a place on the varsity.

TRACK

The track team kept pace with the excellent records of Wildcat teams in other sports by placing second in the indoor conference meet at the University of Chicago Fieldhouse. It's a good thing they didn't have to run the meet in the lower halls of HHS. The meet was highlighted by the stellar performances of Mel Ein in the hurdles and Jim Richards in the dashes.

In spite of the cold weather at the beginning of the outdoor season, the Cats managed to get in shape well enough to win the Hammond Quadrangular Meet against some of the best teams in the state—Roosevelt, Froebel, and Lew Wallace, all of Gary. As was the case in previous meets, the standouts were Ein in the hurdles and Richards in the dashes along with Tinkham in the 440, and Wagner, Adams, and Ziehl in the distance runs. Performances of these men made up for the lack of strength in the field events throughout the season.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Erehwon . . . Reached

The class of 1950, which consisted of approximately 400 students, has placed its members in all conceivable types of jobs. Seven students received athletic scholarships and competed four years in college sports, after which they returned to the Calumet Region to put their athletic prowress to good use in the mills. The field of advanced science accounted for seventeen former students, two of whom gave their lives in an experiment to determine the effect of the hydrogen bomb on humans. Four took governmental jobs, but were later arraigned by the Un-American Activities Committee for being caught drinking vodka on the job. The welfare state has provided numerous jobs for many of the 1950 graduates. Forty-two are drawing unemployment compensation, while fifteen others, who were at one time farmers, have retired on government subsidies. Two graduates went into politics; one became a national hero when he ran on the Republican ticket for the office of the Presidency, and the other was appointed sanitary commissioner of Hobart. Many of the girls who went to college under the pretense of studying, realized their real objective, and are now married and raising families. Five former HHS students became doctors; however, two of them are now passing out pill-forms at the 81st district health clinic. All the remaining students, except for two, are occupying many and varied jobs. The two, who to this day are unaccounted for, were last reported going to Paris; they have not been heard from since. The members of the class of 1950 are certain that they have been quite successful—especially when one considers the condition of world affairs when they graduated.

A Word of Appreciation . . .

• We are deeply grateful to the Alumni of Hartnett College, whose splendid records in business have made possible our growth and success as business educators. The distinction our young men and young women have brought to us is sincerely appreciated.

• We invite into membership with us other young men and young women who may wish to follow in the steps of those who have achieved success and happiness in preparing for their life's work in our school.

Was advertising like this fifty years ago—pounding the pavements, pounding on doors, pounding the staff, the staff—where's Pat, where's Helen, Bill, Marlene, Dick, Carol, and Eileen? Will we meet our deadline?

The ads have been contracted; the layout has been made; and with only a few mental disorders on the part of the staff we have had experience and enjoyment in completing the 50th year of advertising for the "Dunes".

DORIS BUSH
Business Manager

it's all finished. it is the end of the year and the end of another dunes. no more picture schedules and postponed deadlines; no more popping flash bulbs and picture identifications; no more typing and spelling names wrong; no more dummies (you see, this is our last year) and proofreading; no more ice cream cones and good times in the dunes room. it's all finished. this is the end.

laurel groff

all my life i've wanted to be a footnote. to me there's something exciting about being a footnote. you can be such a nuisance (that, i'm afraid, my "friends" have decided i am, especially in trying to get out all this dunes stuff) and yet still retain the dignity of propriety. and even if you don't say anything as a footnote (what footnote does?), people still interrupt their concentration by going 'way down to the bottom of the page to read you—in fear of missing something really good if they don't. so all my life i've wanted to be a footnote. and i'm proud of being such a typical one, for, like most of them, i wasn't worth reading.
